Born in Fire (Fire and Ice Trilogy #1) Chapter One. The sticky-sweet night embraced me like a satisfied lover. Raucous laughter crowded in close as people strolled up Bourbon Street with their green plastic drink holders fashioned after grenades. A little girl broke away from her parents and ran toward me, stopping much too close and

'I was born in fire.' The fire roared bright and hot, sparking everywhere. But it didn't burn, the sparks didn't light. The fire was fully under the man's control. 'The rivers ran with fire.' The fire formed itself into the shape of winding rivers. 'Everything was burned. Animals and trees and plants alike died in the flames.'
