As this dynamic has spiraled into what seems like all-out partisan war, as seen during the impeachment trial, I've become more and more invested in the pursuit of truth, regardless of politics. Because though it sounds partisan, some of the problems we face are deep, real, and in some cases, existential threats to humanity, and we have to ...

The same rule applies to the pursuit of Truth. The human mind often thinks it has found truth in a temporal human condition, such as financial success, a happy relationship, or a peaceful setting. But anything of a temporal nature, is well, temporal! It will come up short in the long run, and the quest begins anew.
