The recipes range from easy to complex (most are only one page in length with a fairly short ingredient list), something that makes this cookbook practical as well as lovely. The techniques are explained in detail, almost as if you are at the Beaune cooking school itself (which I also highly recommend).

Rustic French Recipes from the Cook's Atelier | Food & Wine

The Cook's Atelier I received this cookbook as a birthday gift. It is a beautiful book with tips, recipes, pictures and stories from Burgundy, France.! I have tried 2 recipes. The first recipe was baby leeks with goat cheese and wild garlic. The crust was the best crust I have ever made and tasty! So flaky. The second recipe was coq au vin..
