There is a gift in infertility, adopting, trying to conceive, or just waiting for a baby to come. There is nothing in this life good or bad that isn't a gift. There isn't a time that could be a chance to learn, grow, explore, or stretch ourselves. Sometimes we want to pout and grieve, but we don't have to get stuck there.

"Waiting for Baby" is pretty sentimental and cheesy. We read this book to our daughter leading up to the birth of our son. Our daughter still pulls this off the shelf to read every once inawhile. The plot involves a big sister getting ready for the arrival of her new baby brother and wondering what changes will be coming upon the family.

Waiting for Baby by Rachel Fuller - Goodreads

Finally, around 10 p.m. Tuesday night, they got the call they were waiting for. Their daughter, Kennedy Montgomery had a healthy baby boy named Eli. "Mendy coached her through some of the contractions," Tim said. "I was supposed to be in there with her," Mendy added, sighing and looking back toward the hospital."
